Awards / Accomplishments / Promotions / Appointments January 2019 Employee of the Month

Officer Zach Bemis and Officer Zach Tuley

Officers Bemis and Tuley were nominated due to their work on an investigation into numerous burglaries to businesses and thefts that occurred in the Quincy area. They found that the crimes were connected and they developed information that a male subject was involved in the crimes. After working the case for several weeks and after gathering intelligence and conducting surveillance, they located and arrested the subject and his accomplice. His accomplice was arrested for a felony warrant and a new charge of burglary. The subject was arrested for a felony warrant and two new counts of burglary, two counts of theft, and possession of methamphetamine. Officer Bemis and Tuley worked hard and showed resolve and commitment to apprehend these subjects and put a stop to their string of criminal activity.
